

TEACHING POSITION AT KASINTORN ST. PETER

Kasintorn St. Peter School is a progressive school that offers both English Program and Intensive English Program. We currently provide education for around 4,000 students from the local and surrounding areas. As a school we pride ourselves at placing our learners at the centre of the education process and have a strong team of dedicated teachers taking care of our students on a daily basis.

Why come and work at Kasintorn?

The school provides an opportunity for new and experienced teachers to come and work in a team that work closely together both in and outside of the classroom. Teachers at the school are asked to teach around 20-24 classes per week and are provided with support from our management team and co-teachers.

What kind of person are we looking for?

Our team of teachers are professional and dedicated but also care deeply about the fact they are providing education for children on a daily basis. Working in Thailand at times can be challenging for any native speaker and we fully understand the pressures and difficulties that can occur in a job at any school and we encourage our teachers to be easy-going, flexible with a positive attitude.

The local area.

The school is based in Bang Yai, Nonthaburi which is around 20 km outside of Bangkok. However the local area has seen much development recently and commuting into Bangkok is now very convenient with the establishment of the new Purple line MRT. In addition, the local areas has shopping malls restaurants, cinemas and various other places for teachers to spend their weekends and free time. If living that far from the city is a concern then we also provide free vans to and from the school from areas such as Pin Klao and Rattana Tibeth.

What we are looking for?

Due in large to the development of the English program we are looking for the following position in the next academic year.

- English Teachers in Kindergarten Levels
- Teachers for Primary Levels (English, Math and Science)
- English Teachers for Primary and Secondary Levels
- Science or Math (Secondary Levels)

The package that the school offers is very competitive and would provide a comfortable life in Thailand with ability to save money. Many teachers also when at the school carry out professional development and study formal teaching qualifications, something we can advise in if you are interested. The total package we offer is below:

- total remuneration of 42,000 baht (salary + merit pay)
 - plus monthly housing allowance (maximum 5,000 baht)
 - after 3-month probation period; plus 3,000 baht salary increase
 - contract completion bonus
 - one year contract (renewable)
 - work from Monday to Friday and teach between 20 and 24 periods a week
 - paid holidays: school/public holidays, business and sick leave with pay
 - In addition to this we also offer full support obtaining visas and work permits and can help teachers find suitable accommodation for their needs in and around the school.
- We also provide free school meals and accident insurance for all of our teachers
